10 The Ex Parte Application for a Temporary Restraining Order (the “Application”) made by 11 Plaintiff Andrew D.B. Rowen (“Rowen”) filed with the Court on October 11, 2017 is hereby 12 resolved through the entry of this Stipulated Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction (the 13 “Stipulated Order”). Rowen and Defendants Aamir Ansari, whose legal name is Aamir Riaz
14 Ahmed, (“Ansari”) and Elosophy, LLC (“Elosophy” and together with “Ansari”, “Defendants”)
15 have agreed to the entry of this Stipulated Order

16
17 Rowen and Defendants stipulate and agree, and the Court ORDERS as follows:

18 1. Defendants shall immediately certify in writing to Plaintiff that they have turned over 19 to Plaintiff all source code that relate in any way to the application being developed for 20 Greenlight.

1           2. Defendants shall immediately destroy and delete any copies of any material related to
2           the Greenlight software, including “wireframes” or any other material whether created
3           by Defendants, Plaintiff or any third party (the “Greenlight Property”).
4           3. Defendants shall immediately identify in writing provided to Plaintiff any third party to 5           which Defendants have transferred or shown any of the Greenlight Property, including
6           the date of the transfer or showing and the contact information of the third-party
7           transferee.
8
9           4. Defendants shall not transfer, license, sell, or otherwise share the Greenlight Property.
10           5. This Stipulated Order shall be binding upon any person or entity working together or in 11           concert with the Defendants, including any employees or associates, whether former or 12           present.
13

14           This Order and the injunction contained herein shall remain in effect unless and until there
15           is an order or judgment of the Court modifying or vacating this Order
